INTERCULTURAL INSTITUTE OF JAPAN

日本語を学びたい全ての人に

[Philosophy]

“Japanese for everyone who needs it” - The philosophy of the Intercultural Institute of Japan expresses the school’s intent to be a “school that provides opportunities for everyone who needs Japanese to study it at any time, for any period, and for any purpose.” We believe that diversity of courses and freedom of class selection are important to turn this philosophy into reality, so we have put these very things into effect. By determining a course and selecting classes based on the individual purpose of learning Japanese, students can design their own curriculums. Teachers and staff members support students in terms of learning, career-developing, and daily life so that each and every student can achieve his or her goal independently. We continue to develop our school with the belief that students who enjoy learning Japanese for the pursuit of their dreams are the most precious.

インターカルト日本語学校の理念「日本語を必要とするすべての人のために」は、「日本語を必要とする人であれば、誰でも、いつでも、どんな期間でも、どんな目的でも、勉強できる学校である」ということをあらわしています。私たちは、その理念を実現させるために「コースの多様性」と「授業の選択性」が重要だと考え、実行に移しました。学習目的によるコース設定と選択授業により、学生は自分のカリキュラムを自分で組み立てることができます。教師やスタッフは、学生一人ひとりが自分の力で目的を果たすように、学習・進路・生活面の支援を行います。自分の夢のために楽しく日本語を学ぶ学生の姿が最も尊い—そんな気持ちを持って、学校作りを続けているのです。

[Number of students]

The Intercultural Institute of Japan is not only a school for learning Japanese, but also a community in which people who have different languages, customs, and cultures understand each other through Japanese. We aim to be a “globally-recognized Japanese language school” where students gather from all over the world to study Japanese.

インターカルト日本語学校では日本語を学ぶだけではありません。言葉や習慣、文化の異なる人達が日本語を介してお互いを理解し合う場でもあります。私たちは世界中から学生が集まって日本語を学ぶ「世界基準の日本語学校」を目指しています。
